

Dear Members,

Scouting Ireland accepts that as a result of the transition to a corporate structure, there were shortfalls in its disciplinary framework and in the application of its disciplinary procedures in relation to Mr Christy McCann.

Scouting Ireland regrets those disciplinary shortcomings and their impact on Christy McCann.

Scouting Ireland regrets and apologises for any imputation on the character of Christy McCann other than that he had a meeting with a member of Scouting Ireland which he did not disclose at a subsequent board meeting, which actions a disciplinary board found to be inappropriate.

Scouting Ireland wishes to acknowledge Christy McCann's long dedication to Scouting and wishes him and his family well for the future.

Yours in Scouting,

A handwritten signature in black ink, which appears to read "Aidan Magner". To the right of the signature, the date "22/9/2026" is written in a smaller, less legible script.

Aidan Magner

On behalf of the Scouting Ireland Board
